Our team puts a lot of thought and time in determining pairing duos & trios. During duo and trio rehearsals individual attention from the choreographer and/or team member is given to participating dancers. If you sign up for a duo or trio you are making a commitment to your duo/trio partners for an entire season. If you are not interested in the financial & weekly rehearsal commitment please do not select a solo, duet, or trio. In the event that you decide to not continue your duo/trio commitment you will be charged a $50 re-staging fee for another dancer to learn your spot. Choreography will be taught before October 1st. If your account is past due you may not continue your duo/trio lessons. If you want to cancel a lesson you can not request for a make up lesson.
